GRAND MATINEE OF

ROI CAROTTE," SATURDAY NEXT, AT ONE O'CLOCK.

THE HERALD SAYS:—

"Surpassing, as 'Rol Carotte' does, all previous attempts made here in the same line, in the multiplicity of its mechanism, the number of us performers and the strangeness and intricacies of its singe business, we must admit it is one of the most wonderful pieces ever presented in any theatre—nul of interest and humor, while the scenery, like a kaleidoscope, ever shifting, and keeps the spectator in a maze of astonishment and admiration. The Fompeian tableau cannot, indeed, be too highly praised. The old broken columns and heaps of debris quickly fade away under the influence of the magic lamp and the city, as n was before its fall, its houses gay with emblems, its streets alive with its varied mob of pleasure seekers, rises up in the full light of midday before the audience. The 'monkey tableau' is also one of the oddest and strangest and most outrageously ludicrous spectacles that can be imagined. There are few courts in the world of reality, even on gala days, which make so dazzling a show as that ot king Carrot. It is impossible, indeed, to give a just conception of the varied magnificence of the spectacle."
